Columbia Association of U.S. Customs and Affiliated Federal Agencies

Post Office Box 848, JFK Airport Station, Jamaica, NY 11430

The Columbia Association of U. S. Customs and Affiliated Federal Agencies is a charitable, fraternal, social, non-profit organization. Founded in 1946 at U.S. Customs in New York, the Columbia Association was originally opened to all Customs and other federal employees of Italian descent.

In recent years, the Columbia Association has opened its rolls to any and all, regardless of ethnicity, who share in our purpose and objectives to encourage ties of friendship among members, those of Italian descent and other ethnicities; to perpetuate the ethnic, social and spiritual traditions of the Italian culture; to identify and assist those charitable groups and social service organizations that serve the Italian-American community; and to offer fraternal and benevolent assistance to all its members, regardless of ethnic background.
